Contemporary Living at its Finest

If space is what you desire in one of Ocean Grove's most sought-after areas, look no further. Impressive from the moment you arrive, this home boasts a striking facade and a well-landscaped front garden. Upon entering, you're greeted with views over the front garden and the first of three living spaces. This well-proportioned room provides the perfect retreat from the bustle of family life.

As you continue through the home, you'll discover another living space, ideal for a TV room or kids' play area, also enjoying a serene outlook over mature plantings.

A real highlight of the home is the master suite, tucked away at the back for ultimate privacy and serenity. The north-facing glazing floods the room with natural light, while the walk-in robe will be the envy of your friends. The ensuite bathroom is modern with premium
